Annual Review Measure for Chinese Government Scholarship

International Students of China University of Geosciences

(Elementary Chinese Language Students) (Trial)

In order to strictly regulate the management, improve the quality of personnel training, promote the connotative development of International students' Education in China, enhance the leading role and efficient use of Chinese government scholarship, and cultivate excellent international students with high-level professional knowledge who have a good understanding of China, and cross-cultural competence, the measures are hereby formulated in combination with the actual situation of our university according to the annual review measures of Chinese government scholarship issued by the Chinese Scholarship Council (CSC).

1. Review Content

International students should abide by Chinese laws and regulations, respect Chinese customs and habits, abide by university rules and regulations, and accomplish university learning tasks. The annual review of Chinese government scholarship for international students (Chinese language students) consists of three parts: Ideological Moral Behaviour (30 points), Study Performance (30 points), Study/Academic Attitude (20 points) and Activity Performance (20 points), with a total score of 100 points.

2.Review Details

(1)Ideology and Morality (30 points)

①Ideology and Morality (10 points)

Scholarship students should be familiar with China's history, geography, society, economy and other basic knowledge of China's national conditions and culture, know China's political system and foreign policy, understand the mainstream values of Chinese society and public moral concepts, and cultivate good legal sense and moral awareness. In addition, scholarship students should be honest and trustworthy, and have a strong sense of right and wrong; They shall boast the awareness of mutual respect, understanding and solidarity among different nationalities, societies and countries; Scholarship students should participate in education activities organized by CUG including Chinese laws and regulations, university discipline and rules, national conditions and university conditions, Chinese excellent traditional culture and customs and etc.

②Spiritual Civilization (10 points)

Behave appropriately, treat people politely, respect teachers and unite students; Willing to help others and behave decently; Civilized work and rest and have good living habits; Pay attention to personal hygiene, conscientiously do a good job in collective hygiene; Eat in a civilized manner, consciously abide by the public health system; Actively carry out the mission and responsibility of returning money, donate blood voluntarily, be courageous and establish a good image of international students.

③Code of Conduct (10 points)

Abide by Chinese laws, regulations and university rules and regulations, and respect the customs and ethnic culture of the Chinese people; Don't say any words or do any things endangering China's national security and interests; Do not carry out religious activities such as preaching and worship on campus; Do not do things inconsistent with the status of study, do not do part-time jobs inside or outside the university; No vandalism, gambling, drug or alcohol abuse, fighting or any other bad behavior.

(2) Study Performance (30 points)

Chinese language students shall take all courses required by the training plan in the prescribed academic year. The main courses offered by our university this academic year are 5 courses in total. In terms of the class hours of each course, the score allocation is as follows: 20 points for Comprehensive Chinese, 2.5 points for Listening, 2.5 points for Reading and Writing, 2.5 points for Speaking, and 2.5 points for HSK. Under this premise, the evaluation will be based on students' classroom performance, homework and final exams. The specific calculation method is as follows:

The assessment score for Comprehensive Chinese (A) consists of classroom performance and homework (A1) and final exam (A2), that is A (20 points) = $A1$ (15 points) + $A2$ (5 points). The scoring rules are as follows:

A1	Score	A2	Score
Excellent	15	130- 150	5
Good	10.5- 12.5	110- 130	4-4.5
Qualified	7.5-9.5	90- 110	3-3.5
Disqualified	0-5	<90	0-2

The assessment score for each course of Listening, Reading and Writing, Speaking and HSK (B) consists of classroom performance and homework (B1) and final exam (B2), that is B (2.5 points) = $B1$ (1.5 points) + $B2$ (1 points). The scoring rules are as follows:

B1	Score	B2	Score
Excellent	1.5	90- 100	1
Good	1- 1.2	75-90	0.6-0.8
Qualified	0.6-0.8	60-75	0.5
Disqualified	0-0.5	<60	0-0.2

(3) Study/Academic Attitude (20 points)
